TRINITY
TAX STRATEGIES

SEASON CLOSE · YEAR ONE

10.16

THE DAY AFTER THE EXTENDED DEADLINE

Our first full tax season is done.

The numbers, the wins, and the gratitude.

SWIPE →

WHERE IT STARTED

“The Lord led me into tax.”

RYAN MUNOZ, EA · FOUNDER

One year ago this month, Trinity Tax Strategies opened its doors. October 15 closed our first full tax season.

BY THE NUMBERS

Year one, counted.

48
Client accounts

9
Tax plans delivered

13
S corporations

7
Partnerships

2
C corporations

5
Bookkeeping clients

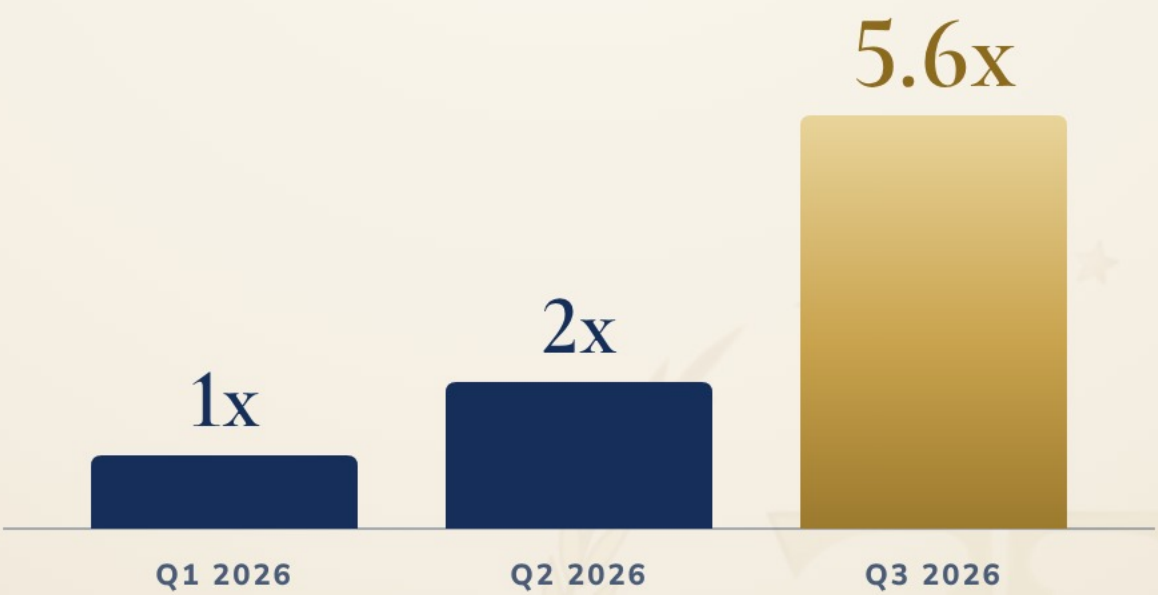

27 BUSINESSES — 21 INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES

Source: Trinity client records in TaxDome, October 15, 2026.

THE GROWTH

Revenue doubled, then nearly tripled.

QUARTERLY REVENUE, INDEXED TO Q1 2026

Q3 ALONE

brought in more than January through June combined.

MONTH BY MONTH

The trend points one way.

MONTHLY REVENUE, JANUARY TO SEPTEMBER 2026

3.9x

Recurring monthly revenue since January

Source: tax revenue collected in TaxDome. Growth shown, not dollars.

THE WINS

Four wins from year one.

Growth on both sides

Planning and compliance clients came faster than we planned for in year one.

A growing team

We are bringing on another EA and a CPA.

Speaking across DFW

Tax symposiums across the metroplex, and an NAEA invitation to help lead webinars for tax firms.

A book on the way

The Next Gen Firm arrives in 2027, and our website was rebuilt in September.

GRATITUDE

A season of gratitude.

God

For leading me into tax, and for His faithfulness.

Our clients

For trusting a first year firm with your numbers.

Lissa and our family

For carrying this season at home.

RYAN MUNOZ, EA

Here's to year two.

Planning for 2026 starts now.

ABOUT ELEVEN WEEKS ARE LEFT IN 2026

Book a planning call at trinitytaxstrategies.com

TRINITY
TAX STRATEGIES